Recipients

Pioneer Award

Arthur Harvey, Ph.D.

Arthur W. Harvey, Ph.D., provided leadership in the initiation of Very Special Arts Kentucky, an organization dedicated to providing quality arts experiences in music, dance, drama, and visual arts to disabled children and adults. He directed Project Discovery, a nationally funded teacher training project, served as artist and teacher in Kentucky's Very Special Arts Festivals, and in the Arts in Basic Education program, and conducted training for Very Special Arts International Leadership in Washington, D.C. to develop affiliated programs in several foreign countries. Dr. Harvey now serves as Minister of Music for Waialae Baptist Church in Hawaii and assists Very Special Arts in Hawaii's Arts Training program. Very Special Arts has arranged with Continental Airlines to have Dr. Harvey flown to Kentucky to receive the Pioneer Award.
