

music

Dr. Arthur W. Harvey

Music Educator---Neuromusicologist

Creator of Online Music Education Courses

Creator of Music and Music Education Courses

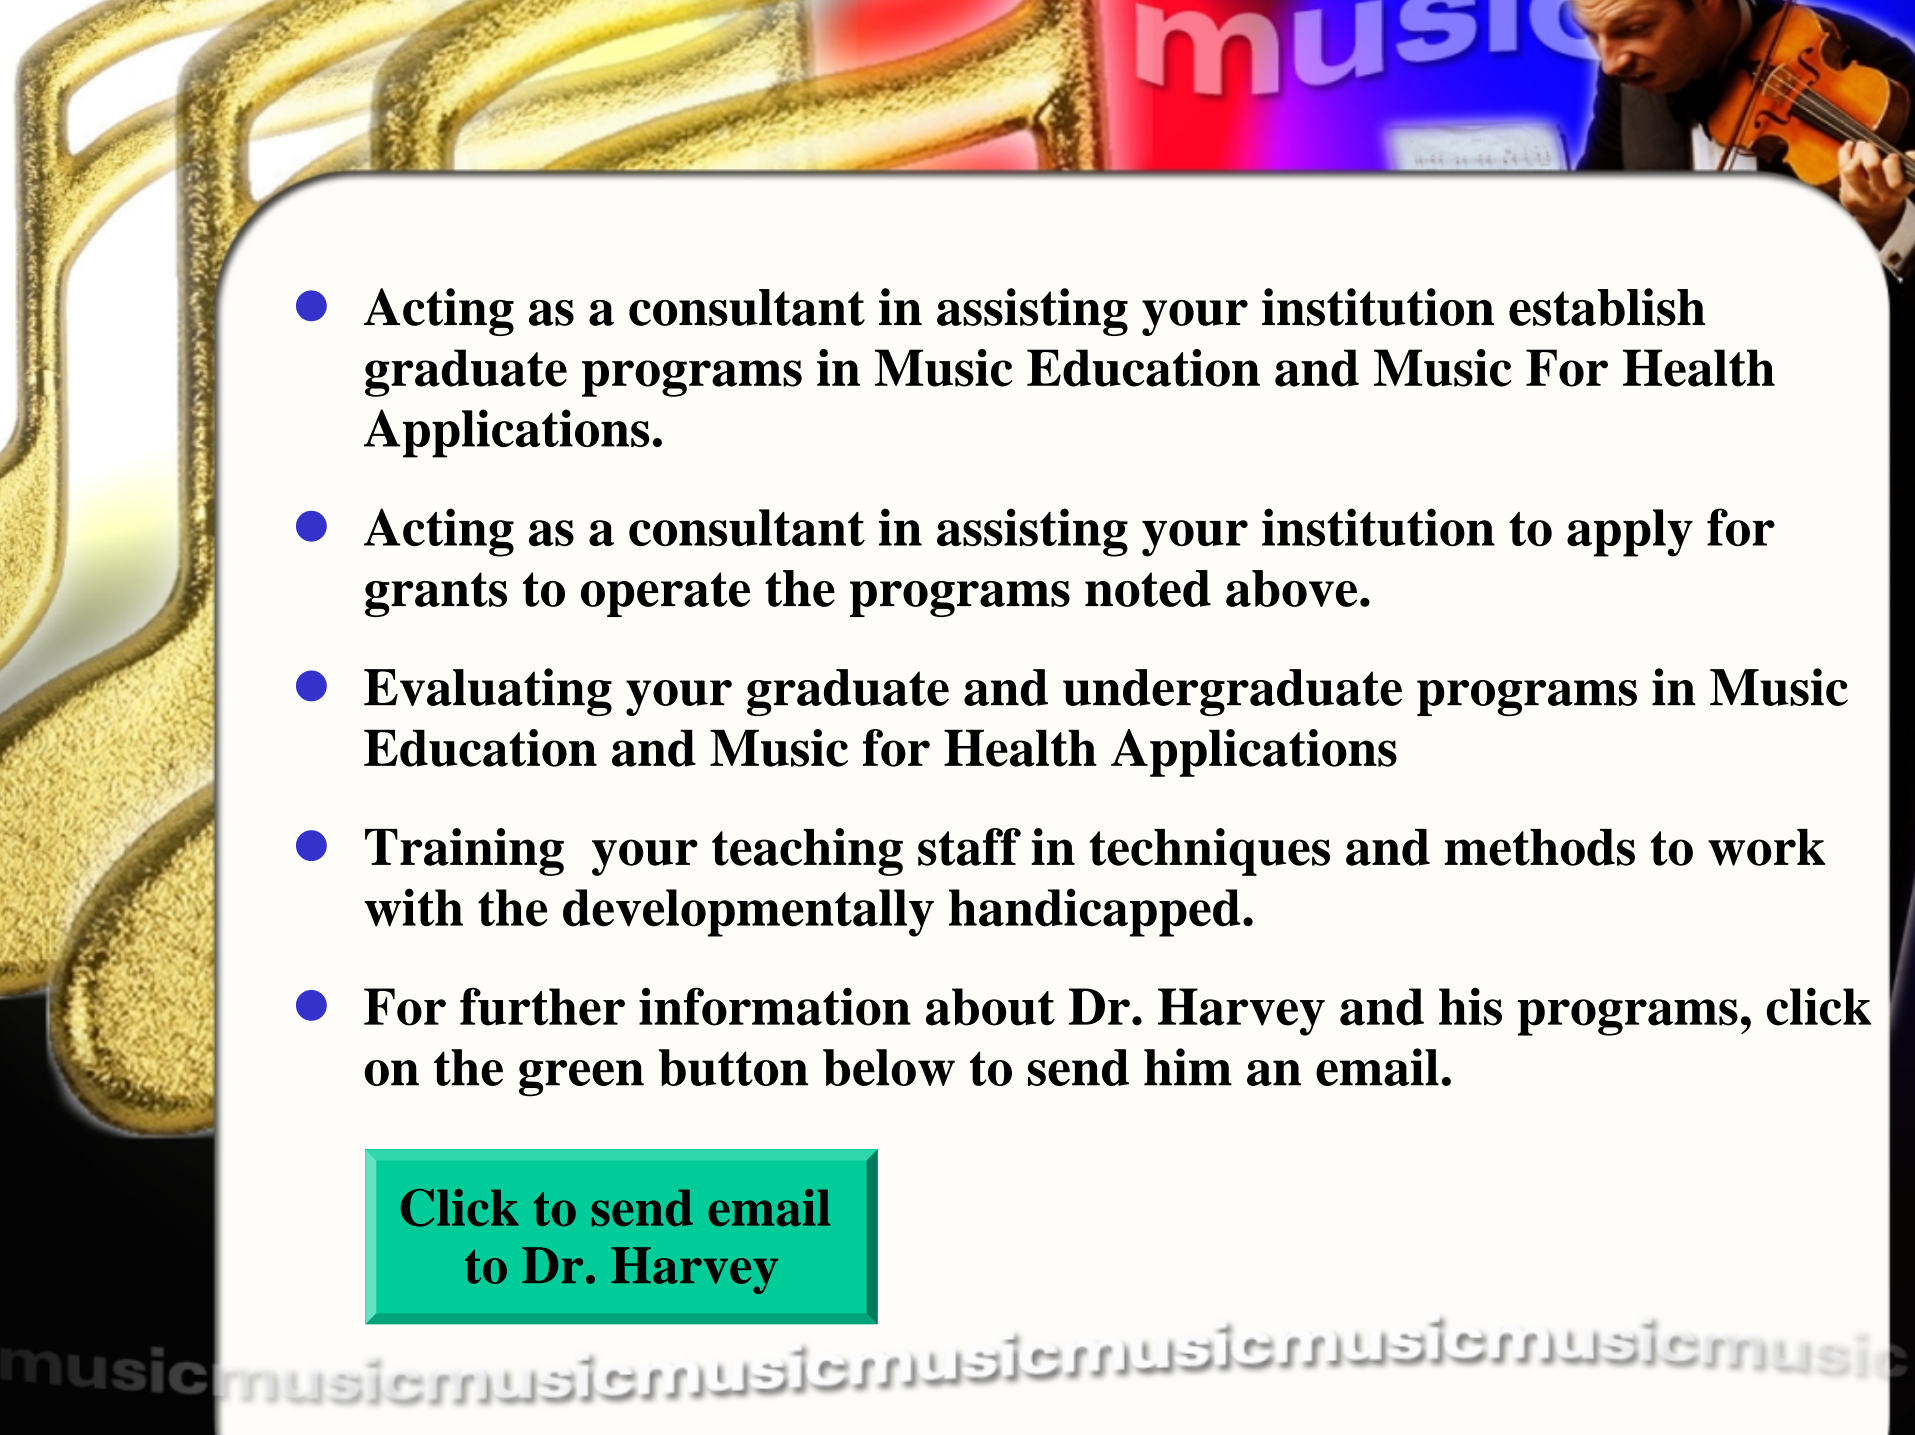

International Lecturer on Music as Therapy & Music and the Brain

musicmusicmusicmusicmusicmusicmusicmusicmusicmusic

Dr. Harvey, who recently retired as a professor of Music Education at the University of Hawaii, has relocated to Florida and is now available for the following:

- Presenting on-line, interactive, distance-learning courses in “music as therapy” and “psychology of music” for your music department. Dr. Harvey had developed and owns the content of these courses, which would be placed on your webct server and presented by him as 3-credit on-line courses at the senior undergraduate / graduate levels.
- Presenting workshops / seminars on establishing effective therapeutic music programs for the elderly and those with developmental disabilities. He has conducted such workshops and seminars for over 30 years throughout the United States and in 23 foreign countries, and has operated such programs in Kentucky and Hawaii for more than 30 years.

-
- Acting as a consultant in assisting your institution establish graduate programs in Music Education and Music For Health Applications.
 - Acting as a consultant in assisting your institution to apply for grants to operate the programs noted above.
 - Evaluating your graduate and undergraduate programs in Music Education and Music for Health Applications
 - Training your teaching staff in techniques and methods to work with the developmentally handicapped.
 - For further information about Dr. Harvey and his programs, click on the green button below to send him an email.

Click to send email to Dr. Harvey