

MUSIC AS THERAPY

MUS 170 Section 0 (CRN 31765 or 31766)

This special on-line learning opportunity is available to you through

KAPI'OLANI COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Fall Semester 2010, August 23 – December 17

Instructor...Dr. Arthur Harvey

Music Professor-Author-Researcher-Performer

MUS 170, Section 0 (CRN 31765 or 31766) Music As Therapy will explore the many roles and perspectives that music offers as a tool for therapy. Through readings, media and online discussions, participants will examine the relationship of Music Therapy to the Problems of the Brain/Mind, the Body, Emotions and Feelings, the Spirit, and Health, Wellness and Healing. The culminating project for each student will be to develop a multi-media presentation illustrating the diverse applications of music as therapy for personal and professional purposes.

Topics will include an introduction to:

Music Therapy – Music And Health – Tomatis – MusicMedicine
Psychology of Music - Physiology - Adaptive Methods
Music and Autism – Music and Alzheimers – Music and ADHD
Neuromusicology – Psychoacoustics – Stress Management
Auditory Processing – Musical Development – Sound Therapy
Influence of Music on Human Behavior – Music & Immune System
Music Resources for Therapeutic Purposes – and Music Therapy and Spirituality

*To register for MUS 170, Section 0, Music As Therapy, use CRN 31765 or 31766
www.myuhinfo.hawaii.edu/page/home*

Three Undergraduate Credits (or Audit)

To contact professor:

aharvey@hawaii.edu

Cell: 808 352-6088